Tickets Available for the New Albany Women's Network's 2015 Annual Charity Fashion Show and Tea Party

New Albany, Ohio - Tickets are now available for The New Albany Women's Network's (NAWN) Annual Charity Fashion Show and Tea Party on Saturday, November 14th. The event will be held at the Jefferson Country Club in Blacklick, OH from 11:00 am until 2:00 pm.

The beneficiary for this year's event is 1girl. 1girl was developed at The Ohio State University and its mission is to provide leadership development to local middle school girls. 1girl's unique, proven curriculum, facilitated by college-aged women volunteers, is designed around five core skills: public speaking, creative problem solving, critical thinking, goal setting and conflict resolution.

Fashion Show Chairperson Tenielle Comerford says "We are very excited for this year's Fashion Show and Tea Party. 1girl is an amazing organization, which truly embodies the values and goals of the New Albany Women's Network. We are grateful for the opportunity to pair with them on this great event and to all of our sponsors for their continued support and dedication."

The 16th annual event includes many desirable items for bidding in a silent auction with all proceeds benefitting 1girl. Coordinators have secured fashions to be worn during the show from several local retailers: Belles and Beaux, J. McLaughlin, Ladybird, Matilda Jane, Nicole's for Children, Pure Barre, Tailfeathers, Tigertree & Cheesecake Boutique. 1girl participants will be modeling in the event!

You can purchase individuals tickets at $45 or a table of ten for $400. Go to www.NAWN.org for more information.
